Dear Tim,

William showed me your nice letter of Feb 16th, and I thought you might like to have a copy of Bill Vitka's radio interview with William for NBC's syndicated program, "The Source". Pretty tame as edited, compared to the original conversations, but once again Bill makes the point you and he and many others have been trying to get across: we are here to go.

Pardon the lo-fi -- that's the way their copy was.

William and I will be in Los Angeles around 4-10 May, with a reading for WET magazine on the 9th. Hope to see you then.

Best,

James Grauerholz
